SCLA Conference 2025

The 2025 SCLA Conference Poster Session is an opportunity to share your strengths and successes visually and in face-to-face discussions with your colleagues. Your poster session may focus on an innovative idea, creative program, effective partnership, hands-on activity, exploration of a topic in librarianship, results from research or surveys, or anything else you've been working on that you would like to share.

For any questions please contact poster session coordinator Karen Burton at kbburto@clemson.edu
