

Intellectual Freedom Award

The Intellectual Freedom Award recognizes members of our community who have contributed to an awareness of intellectual freedom and censorship issues in South Carolina libraries. The award may be given to any member of the community, librarian or not, who has contributed to upholding the principles of intellectual freedom. Service on which the award is based must have occurred within five years preceding January 1 of the award year.

Please address nominations to the chair of the Intellectual Freedom Committee. Deadline for award nominations is September 16, 2022.
