Why have a large-scale event
(like a Comic Con)
at your library?

2015:
Over 1700

2016:
Over 2200

Where to begin planning?

Below: SC Comicon 2016
(Greenville, SC)

Above: San Diego Comic Con International (where the Eisners and latest Marvel/DC projects are announced every year)

Even messy planning notes
can be useful for your Instagram.

andersoncountylibrary Less than a month away! The #electriccitycomicon committee is hard at work. Mark your calendars to be at the Main Lib on Aug 8!

The Anderson County Library is offering tables to vendors, artists, and nonprofit organizations from the Southeast wishing to promote and/or sell their work at the 2017 Electric City ComiCon.

- The Anderson County Library and EC3 will charge a $5 fee for each accepted vendor/artist/organization.
- Set-up times vary by area, but generally are between 7:30-10:00 am on the Saturday of the convention. Tear-down is from 5-6pm. All guests must have their spaces cleared by 6pm. Guests must provide their own personnel at their exhibit space between 10-5.
- All work sold must be the original work of the artist/vendor, family-friendly (PG-13) and available for purchase or commission.
- Services offered must be immediate or commission-based.
- The Anderson County Library and EC3 are not responsible for financial transactions between guests and attendees.
- Please attach 3 images of craftwork samples with this application, or provide a detailed description of services offered.
- Once your application and samples/description have been reviewed, EC3 will notify you about acceptance for the 2017 Electric City ComiCon and provide information on payment of the $5 application fee.
- Submitted applications do not guarantee acceptance.
- Applications can be submitted electronically to electriccitycomicon@andersonlibrary.org or mailed to:

Patron Conduct Code

To ensure a suitable environment for library use in the Anderson County Library system, please abide by the following rules while in the libraries or on library property.

1. Keep conversations, including cellular telephone conversations, quiet. Cell phone use is permitted, but ringers should be set to "vibrate" or "off." No conversation or noise should disturb others in reading or study areas.
2. Meeting rooms are available for groups. You must follow all meeting room regulations when using a meeting room.
3. Listen to personal music devices only with earphones.
4. Do not eat, drink, smoke, or sleep in the library.
5. Do not run or engage in other disorderly conduct.
6. Do not sit on tables or place your feet on furniture.
7. Do not use restrooms for meetings, bathing, loitering, sexual behavior or solicitation, or consumption of alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs.
6. Remain in public areas unless you are accompanied by a staff member. Do not loiter in the front entrance hall, or block walkways or otherwise interfere with movement anywhere on library property. You must leave the library at or before the designated closing time.
7. Stealing, mutilating or defacing library property is against both our rules and the law. Circulating materials may be checked out at the front desk; all other materials must remain in the library. Willfully damaging, altering or removing computer equipment or configurations is prohibited.
8. Do not solicit or sell anything, campaign, or distribute any materials without the express permission of library administration.
9. Exhibitionism, offensive sexual behavior, and any type of assault on patrons or staff are prohibited. The police will be called in the event of such behavior.
10. Weapons are prohibited in the library.
11. Assistance and service dogs are welcome in the library. No other animals are permitted.
12. Follow all fire regulations.
13. Shoes or sandals and shirts should be worn in all library locations. No gang colors or symbols are allowed in any library location.
14. All bags, backpacks and packages are the sole responsibility of the owner and should never be left unattended. The library staff is not responsible for monitoring personal items and reserves the right to remove, from the library property, any suspicious, unattended bags, backpacks, or packages.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Electric City ComiCon Code of Conduct

We at the Electric City ComiCon want everyone to feel safe and have fun. With that in mind, please review the following:

Please respect common sense rules for public behavior, personal interaction, common courtesy, and respect for private property.

Cosplay does NOT equal consent. Always ask cosplayers for permission before touching or photographing them or their costumes.

We are NOT responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged property.

NO weapons are permitted. All props that may look like legitimate weaponry must be checked and approved by the Anderson County Sheriff's deputy at the Prop Weapons Check table in the lobby.

Photos and videos taken may be used for promotional purposes by the library and its partners. By attending, you consent, waive all rights to royalties, and release us of any liability. AND you help us show others how fun and outstanding the library events are!

No food or drinks are allowed in the library except in the Friend's Café. Please enjoy the food trucks outside.

Any Anderson County Library policy is also Electric City ComiCon policy.

We reserve the right to ask anyone to leave with or without reason to maintain the safety and happiness of everyone at the Electric City ComiCon.
